

San Salvador, January 11, 2012

Dear Mr. Bishop,

I direct my attention to you, to make your kind awareness that next January 16 of the current year at 4:30 pm, the Legislative Assembly of the Republic will celebrate in Official Session, the twentieth anniversary of the signing of the Peace Accords, a historic fact that has come to mean for Salvadorans the attainment of peace, the strengthening of our democratic institutions, and the consolidation of dialog as a method for resolving our differences.

In this respect, given your valiant direct input to said process, from negotiation through the culmination of the signing of the Peace Accords, giving a display of dedication and service to this country, and with a profound sense of justice and identification with the cause of peace, it is for our Assembly a high honor to be able to invite you and deliver to you a Special Recognition in said Official Session, the same that will be conferred during the development of the official program for said Session.

Thanking you in advance for your valued attendance, I take this opportunity to reiterate to you a testimonial of my high and distinguished consideration.

Eduardo Cáliz
