Bienvenidos, Bienvenidas

Welcome to El Salvador Sunday!

Simple Lesson Plan today:

1. Gather in the Choir Room for the following:

- ✝ Quick Review on El Salvador
- ✝ Introduction of Kaily (Kelly) and Franklin, whose education is supported by the St. John's Sunday School children
- ✝ Sharing about health clinic next week

2. Art Project

- ✝ Children will be divided into groups of 4 to sponge paint banners
- ✝ Banners and materials are set up in rooms at the far end of the hall
- ✝ Offer smocks (on bench outside classrooms) to kids in nice clothes

PAINT TIPS:

- a. "Luz" Banner... yellow inside flame, one flesh tone per ray
- b. "Paz" Banner... green inside leaves, keep dove white, randomly sponge the flesh tones around the dove (like the sky)
- c. "Amor" Banner... red inside hearts, encourage kids to interconnect their heart stamps (stamp a heart with one flesh color interlocked with a heart of a different flesh color, like the symbol)
- d. "Cristo" Banner... one ribbon = red, one ribbon = yellow, one ribbon = green; cross can be sponged randomly with the flesh tones

- ✝ When finished, kids can wash their hands in the bathroom and return to Choir Room

3. Valentine Cards for Los Héroes Scholarship Students

- ✝ Kids can choose the name of a scholarship student who still needs a personal correspondence and create a Valentine for the student
- ✝ Questions about anything related to El Salvador are welcome!
